

Dick Korn

I was born in western New York at a very early age. About the time I was entering Jr. High School, My family moved to Hollywood, FL where I graduated from High School in 1961. I enrolled at Florida State University and joined the band program there. I graduated from FSU in 1965, and enrolled in graduate school at the State University of New York in Brockport, NY, for graduate studies. I joined the US Army in 1967 and served in Vietnam with the First Cavalry Division. Upon discharge from the Army, I enrolled in Emory University, Atlanta Ga. and was awarded a Masters degree in 1972. I remained in Georgia (mainly Savannah) until late 1987 when I moved to Malabar, FL, to be with and marry Joanne.

Succumbing to the influence of Walt Doughty, Brian Vail and others, I became interested in the town government of Malabar. Prior to my being elected to the Town Council, I served 12 years on the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and a short time on the Planning and Zoning Board.
