MALABAR TOWN COUNCIL APPOINTS NEW MAYOR

At the Monday March 7, 2016 council meeting, Phillip Crews was unanimously chosen as mayor over two other applicants. The mayoral position was vacant due to Mayor Carl Beatty's recent death. Crews will serve until the November 2016 elections.

Crews was elected as mayor in 1997, serving a second term through 2004. In 2012, a previous council asked Crews to finish out Mayor Tom Eschenberg's term after his death in office.

Crews was unanimously voted council chairman immediately after he was sworn in. The other applicants were former council woman Marisa Acquaviva and Chef Stuart Borton, co-owner of The Yellow Dog Café.
