

Official
Proclamation
Town of Malabar,
Florida

FLORIDA CITY GOVERNMENT WEEK

WHEREAS, local government is the government closest to most citizens, and the one with the most direct daily impact upon its residents; and

WHEREAS, local government is administered for and by its citizens, and is dependent upon public commitment to and understanding of its many responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, local government officials and employees share the responsibility to pass along their understanding of public services and their benefits; and

WHEREAS, Florida City Government Week is a very important time to recognize the important role played by local government in our lives; and

WHEREAS, this week offers an important opportunity to spread the word to all the citizens of Florida that they can shape and influence this branch of government which is closest to the people; and

WHEREAS, the Florida League of Cities and its member cities have joined together to teach students and other citizens about municipal government through a variety of different projects and information; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor of the Town of Malabar established our own Teen Council which held its first meeting on April 2, 2009; consisting of six (6) teenagers ranging in age from 13 to 16.

WHEREAS, Florida City Government Week offers an important opportunity to convey to all the citizens of Florida that they can shape and influence government through their civic involvement.

Section 1. That the Town of Malabar does encourage all citizens, local government officials and employees to do everything possible to ensure that this week is recognized and celebrated accordingly.

Section 2. That the Town of Malabar does encourage educational partnerships between local government and schools.

Section 3. That the Town of Malabar does support and encourage all local governments to actively promote and sponsor "Florida City Government Week."

Now, Therefore, I, Thomas Eschenberg, Mayor of the Town of Malabar, along with the Town Council, do here by recognize the week of October 17 – 23, 2010 as:

"Florida City Government Week"
